

let's TALK

1. Gather in the name of the Father, Son & Holy Spirit. Share your highs/lows. Read Matthew 21:1-16. What strikes you as you read?
2. Why do you think Jesus allowed this kind of worship & public announcing of Himself as the Messiah to happen here when he had stopped it many times before?
3. Compare the response of Jesus' disciples & the reaction of the Pharisees. What does this teach you about the response of a follower of Christ to his kingship? In what area do you still struggle to allow Jesus to rule in your life?
4. Read Zechariah 9:1-10, Psalm 48, & Isaiah 62. Jews in Jesus' day were familiar with these texts of Scripture. How might they have misunderstood Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem? How could people today misunderstand Jesus in a similar way? How do you respond when God does not do what you expect?
5. How is Jesus' power displayed here in contrast to the power of the Roman government & that of the religious hierarchy? Where in your life do you need Jesus' power to increase and your own to decrease?
6. Read Philippians 2:5-11. In what sense did Jesus "empty" himself? How does his obedience to the Father's will encourage you in your obedience this week? What area of your life is calling for deeper obedience to the Father's power in you?
7. Who needs to hear that Jesus is King for them, even though they don't acknowledge it yet? Ask someone to pray for your bold witness.

THOUGHT for the week:

"The primary problem people seem to be having with the church today is they see too little of Christ in it."
