

TALK

1. Gather in the name of the Father, Son & Holy Spirit. Share your highs/low. Read Psalm 103 & Luke 11:1-13. What strikes you as you read?
2. What mood do you hear in the Psalm? To whom is he speaking? Why would he do that? What is the intended result? Why does he tell himself to not forget?
3. David is claimed as the author of this Psalm. What is the significance of vs 3 in David's life? In yours? How does remembering what God has done, not just your own life, but in the lives of other faithful people encourage you?
4. Note vss 6 & 19. Do you read these as promises, or guarantees of something that will be revealed in the future? How do we understand these verses to be true in relation to what we know of the world?
5. In this Psalm, David not only praise God for what He has done but also for who He is (vs 8 notes the shift). Does David's description of God match your own concept of God? If not, what would it take for you to see & experience God this way? How does vss 13-14 help you appreciate God's care & compassion for you more deeply?
6. With whom can you share this image of the Father this week?

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

“Abba” is only a little word, & yet contains everything. It is not the mouth but the heart's affection which speaks like this. Even if I am oppressed with anguish & terror on every side, & seem to be forsaken & utterly cast away from your presence, yet am I Your child, & You are my Father. For Christ's sake: I am loved because of the Beloved.
