

TALK

1. Gather in the name of the Father, Son & Holy Spirit. Share your highs/low. Read Luke 9:28-35 & Acts 17:16-34. What strikes you as you read these texts?
2. Share a time when you had an experience of God that transformed your life or a time when you felt especially close to God. What happened? What changed for you?
3. The three apostles are told to "listen" to Jesus. How do you go about listening to Jesus? What things help or hinder you in doing so? How's it going for you?
4. Why do you think the apostles "didn't tell anyone" about their experience until after the resurrection? How does Easter make plain or give meaning to this event?
5. How is the scene in Athens similar to our time in history, & specifically our city? What idols or "pagan worship" do you see around Wagga Wagga? How do you feel about that? What is our responsibility in this situation?
6. Read Acts 20:24 in light of Paul's evangelism here in Athens. Paul was driven by a singular conviction that the gospel of Christ really was THE truth above all other rival religious or spiritual claims., & Jesus was THE only way God had provided for salvation. Who do you know who needs to know those two truths?

4. Pray for one another (Praise God, Thank Jesus, Ask the Holy Spirit).

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

The trouble with nearly everybody who prays is that they say 'Amen' & run away before God has a chance to reply. Listening to God is far more important than giving Him our ideas.
